Rocky Hill Issues Indoor Mask Mandate in Public Places

by Mark DiPaola

Rocky Hill has issued its own indoor mask mandate for all public places – a move Mayor Lisa Marotta says was prompted by surging COVID case rates driven by the Delta variant.

The mandate – an exercise of latitude granted to local communities by the Governor's Office – went into effect August 20 at midnight. It will apply to all individuals, regardless of vaccination status – with some exemptions.

"We're going to use that authority, based on the information available to us, to keep our community safe," Mayor Marotta said in a video statement posted Friday night to her Facebook page. "The Delta variant is here. It's highly contagious, and as long as the experts are telling us this is keeping us safe, let's do what works."

On August 5, Governor Lamont renewed his mask-on mandate for all indoor school settings, but left it to municipalities to set COVID mitigation measures for other public places.

At last Monday's Town Council meeting, Central Connecticut Health District (CCHD) Director Charles Brown told officials that he had urged the Governor's legal team to consider a statewide mask mandate – to no avail.

"Not having a mask mandate statewide, to me, is foolish. It leaves us with a patchwork quilt that has gaps in it," he said. "I don't think it's a popular political position right now."

So he turned to local officials, urging them to take it up on their own.

Marotta was hesitant at the time, expressing the same concerns regarding uniformity.

"I go back and forth with it, but I really don't see, with the Governor leaving it up to the municipalities, [the point of] Rocky Hill saying 'everyone wear their masks', if Cromwell isn't going to do it, or even New Haven and Stamford," Marotta said Monday night.

But by that Friday, she was announcing Rocky Hill's mandate – detailed in a notice posted by Town Manager John Mehr's Office.

Exceptions to the rule include:

- Those that are indoors but separated by a partition

- Those indoors and maintaining at least 6 feet of social distancing

- Those with certain disabilities or behavioral challenges

- Those (who are vaccinated) taking part in a performing arts event

- Those under the age of 2

- Those indoors and alone

Marotta's Facebook address – which drew 45 comments in the accompanying thread – was met with a mix of praise and frustration from town residents.

"I don't think of this as a step backwards. We are moving forward with the tools we have in our toolbox to ensure we can keep doing what we like to do," the Mayor said. "We have a new school year starting, our restaurants are doing great, and we want to maintain that in Rocky Hill."

As of Monday's Connecticut Department of Public Health (DPH) tracking, Rocky Hill had a positivity rate of 20 per 100,000 people, placing it at the agency's red threat level.

"We will continue to monitor the situation," Marotta said. "This isn't permanent. We're going to revisit it, and when the time is right, we'll make the decision to terminate the mandate."

She says that she's reached out to Governor Lamont's Office regarding a statewide mandate.

"I'm very mindful of the fact that this sort of town-by-town approach is very limited," Marotta said. "To have an effective policy, you do need to have it come from a level where there's collaboration amongst municipalities, and the only way you get that is with some kind of mandate coming from the state level."

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

I heartily endorse and support Paula Luna, a Democratic candidate for Cromwell Town Council. To know Paula is to know that her strong work ethic, unbridled energy, and organizational skills would be an asset to the Council. She is a retired paralegal with impeccable attention to detail and isn't afraid to ask tough, probing questions. Being a born and raised Cromwellite, she has seen many positive changes in our town and has a vested interest in being a part of that in the future.

Absentee ballots will be available at the Cromwell Town Clerk's Office, and balloting begins October 2nd, with election day a month later on November 2nd. So be sure to vote, and when you do, vote for Paula Luna!

Deirdre Daly

Dear Editor,

My name is Kristen Basiaga and I'm a Cromwell resident, taxpayer, and voter. This fall, I'm happy to support James Demetriades as he runs for his third term on the Cromwell Town Council. I've known James for the past few years through his involvement in community theater as well as through his work in the Cromwell community at-large. In that time, he has been an intelligent, patient, and passionate leader, who takes the time to listen to concerns and present reasonable solutions.

James Demetriades is a lawyer, current Town Council member, and a life-long Cromwell resident. In just his time on the Town Council, James has made visible impacts on our little community. If you've seen the murals on Main Street or the revitalized baseball dugouts, that was through James's work as Chair of the Cromwell Creative District (CCD). The CCD's events like the Coffeehouse and the Block Party not only support Cromwell's small businesses but also bring our community together.

As a member of the Town Council, James offers a balanced perspective on the budget. He listens to residents. He hosts a podcast, Cromwell Listens, that celebrates our town as a beautiful place to live and raise a family. As a delegate to the Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Committee of the town, he knows that the success of our town is inexorably tied to the successes of all its residents.

In his third term on Town Council, James is running on a basic platform with three key goals: increasing accessibility and transparency of local government, supporting youth and family services, and investing in small businesses.

So this fall, I encourage my friends and neighbors to vote for James Demetriades for Cromwell Town Council.

Kristen Basiaga

Dear Editor,

I am endorsing Kelly Franklin for a seat with the Town of Cromwell Board of Education. She grew up in Cromwell and after we married it was important for us to buy our home and raise our two boys here. The future of all the children in town is incredibly important to her. She is the hardest working person I know in her personal career and family life. You will not find a more committed, enthusiastic and dedicated candidate.

Drew Sundholm

Dear Editor,

I am writing to endorse Kelly Franklin for a seat with the Cromwell Board of Education. I can't think of anyone more qualified or dedicated to our town than Kelly. She has lived her entire life in Cromwell, going through the school system, which makes her an ideal candidate. She has two young children that give her the incentive to work tirelessly toward a better tomorrow for our community and school system.

Diane Smyth

Dear Editor,

I am writing to express my support for Allan Spotts to be our next mayor of Cromwell. Others have and will continue to cite Allan's comprehensive record of outstanding public service in numerous official capacities, so I will not repeat his record here. Rather, I will describe my impressions of Allan Spotts the person.

Allan is one of the rare individuals whose genuine enthusiasm and excitement are contagious. It's hard not to get truly excited about a town project or event when Allan's describing what will happen and what we need to do to MAKE it happen. He is a catalyst, a true leader, the synergistic element we need in Cromwell. Not only does Allan contribute, but he also motivates others to contribute in a way in which they derive great satisfaction and pride from their involvement.

When I decided to become active in local affairs, Allan personally encouraged my involvement – even though I was not a member of his political party at the time – and has always been there when I had a question or a concern. Best of all, through my subsequent involvement with the Town, we have become good friends and often enjoy lunch together with no agenda other than to catch up and enjoy one another's company.

Yes, Allan has served superbly in his many titled roles in town. But he is also no stranger to the less glamorous "roll up your sleeves, pitch in, and get it done," serve-where-you're-needed positions. I frequently saw Allan selflessly volunteering in school events (along with his wife Karen Spotts) as our sons Geoff and Tim, classmates, climbed the grades toward graduation. "Keeping the soda bin filled and cold" for example isn't something that goes on your public service resume, but if that's where he was needed, that's where you'd find Allan.

Ask anyone – Allan's expertise, enthusiasm, and energy, and his ability to inspire the same in others, are precisely what we need to continue the growth of good things here in Cromwell.

Cromwell Superintendent Outlines School Return Plans

by Mark DiPaola

A state mandate will keep masks on in schools till at least September 30 – when Governor Lamont can either renew or sunset the executive order he extended on August 5.

The move, which comes on the heels of CDC recommendations that all students – regardless of vaccination status – mask up indoors – has been hailed by public health experts as the best defense against the Delta variant that has driven up COVID positivity rates over the past six weeks.

“The more people that are vaccinated, the better the chance is we can ease up,” said Cromwell Superintendent of Schools Dr. Enza Macri at the Board of Education’s (BOE) August 10 meeting. “This variant is more contagious, but the data is, if you’re vaccinated, your chances of getting severely ill are much, much, much less.”

As of that night, 76 percent of Cromwell residents were vaccinated, but the younger age groups boast some of the lowest rates – the state still awaits eligibility for those under the age of 12.

The mask mandate news came as districts like Cromwell were preparing their re-opening plans – and awaiting the Connecticut Department of Public Health (DPH) guidelines that would shape them.

Macri’s team, meanwhile, distributed a survey to district parents asking them to voice their concerns with the return to full in-person learning – Cromwell, per a sunset of state mandates, will not be offering any remote or hybrid option this year – and in-building COVID safety measures.

“They were all over the place,” Macri said of the response comments, which by her summary, ranged from imploring school officials to make masking a choice, to those urging them to require face coverings until all students can be vaccinated.

What parents did seem to agree on, however, was getting kids back into the classroom – both to catch up academically and fulfill the social emotional piece that’s been the talk of school districts across the state.

“Our number one priority is to keep kids in school, and we’re doing the best we can,” Macri said.

When and where exactly will masks be required?

The general rule is that masks must be worn inside, but with some exceptions.

One is the cafeteria – last year students were prohibited from talking during lunch periods to mitigate the risk of spread while they were eating.

This fall that will change.

“You have to weigh the risks and the benefits, so we’ll give it a try,” Macri said. “We want them to talk, because you have to have that social-emotional component.”

The district’s mitigation strategy will prohibit loud conversations, the Superintendent said.

“They have to talk quietly, because if they talk loudly, there’s a good chance of spraying droplets,” she said. “They’ll put their masks back on when they’re waiting to go outside, and when they get outside, they’ll be able to take their masks off.”

The latest CDC and DPH guidelines recommend holding as many activities outdoors as feasible.

How will social distancing be handled?

The CDC recommends a minimum of 3 feet social distancing, so that’s how classrooms – per seating charts – will be arranged, Macri said.

Other areas of the school buildings – such as the cafeterias and gymnasiums – will follow the 6-foot threshold because students and staff move around more in those settings, she said.

As for outdoor recess, the district will be forming 3-4-student play cohorts that will rotate between various playground equipment – to enable regular surface sanitation between shifts – according to the Superintendent.

“The most important thing is washing their hands before and after everything,” she said.

What about testing and quarantining?

Asymptomatic individuals that have been vaccinated will not be subject to the 10-day quarantine protocol for exposure, according to Macri.

Within the school building environment, a symptomatic exposure will sideline a student for up to 10 days – with an option to test after day 5 and, if negative, return to school by day 8.

For athletic-based exposure in the case of unvaccinated students, however, the quarantine is 10 days, no questions asked.

Per advice from district legal counsel, teachers and other school staff can ask if they’ve been vaccinated without HIPAA violation, Macri told the Board.

“We can act more quickly than we have in the past as far as quarantining,” she said. “We are allowed to ask families voluntarily, that they may [choose whether to] share their vaccine cards.”

What about collaborative in-class group-work?

BOE member Kathryn Russ raised the issue, asking whether the district planned to resume the collaborative small group work put on pause during the worst of the pandemic.

The work dynamic, she says, is integral to science lab projects, for one thing, she said.

Macri says she’d like to have student-to-teacher small group instruction – at least.

“We’ve been killing ourselves to get station to station rotation model because we know kids learn from each other too, but we can’t ensure [safety] with the seating charts,” Macri said. “They can do the lab and share materials if they’re washing their hands. They can’t stay three feet apart, but the labs are shorter than 15 minutes. If everyone is willing to share vaccination status, we can worry less about the 3 feet.”

What about remote learning for immunocompromised students?

BOE member John Flanders raised the issue, asking whether the SDE has provided guidance in that regard.

Families must provide documentation from a medical provider, which would prompt a 504 plan review, according to Macri.

“We would then provide tutoring the way we normally would, God forbid a kid is sick and couldn’t attend school,” she said. “We would provide that specialized instruction through the same process.”

But what about a student with a parent that’s immunocompromised? Flanders asked.

Macri said that the district and its legal team from Shipman and Goodwin are awaiting state guidance in that regard.

What happens after the September 30 executive order expiration?

If the mask order is not renewed, districts like Cromwell have options, Macri said.

The town – school district, Town Manager’s office, health department and all – is prepared to begin discussions on easing mitigation measures, if deemed safe to do so, she told the Board.

But at the table, one member expressed some frustration with what she described as a heavy-handed approach by the state.

“Last year we were held accountable as a state. We know as a district we did well. Now that we have vaccines, and our infection rates are low, why should Cromwell be held accountable to the same standards as other towns that are not at the state we are?” Russ asked.

CCD Holds Coloring Contest

Cromwell Creative District is kicking off this year’s scarecrow fun with a coloring contest. All ages are invited to participate! Submissions will be accepted through Sept. 18. Submissions are to be sent to a specific email: cromwellcreativedistrict+SWAP@gmail.com and must include a name and email address. Entries may be posted on social media, with only first names, unless approval is given otherwise. All submissions will be entered into a raffle to win one of four $25 prizes! Be on the lookout for more scarecrow fun with a new Scarecrow Swap event this October! Follow Cromwell Creative District on Facebook and Instagram for details.

Introduction to Pickleball

Come find out what all the excitement is about the fastest growing sport in the USA-Pickleball! Pickleball is a paddleball sport that combines elements of badminton, table tennis, and tennis. Two or four players use solid paddles made of wood or composite materials to hit a perforated polymer ball, much like a whiffle ball, with 26-40 round holes, over a net. The sport shares features of other racket sports: the dimensions and layout of a badminton court, and a net and rules somewhat similar to tennis, with several modifications. Join Certified Pickleball Instructor, Ahmad K. Elliot, as he teaches you to dink, serve, return and score. All equipment will be provided. For the senior community

Legislators Call for Special Session on Vehicle Property Crime

by Mark DiPaola

Lawmakers are renewing calls for a discussion on motor vehicle property crime – a problem they say is underscored by this month's car theft tragedy in New Britain.

Whether it makes the fall special session agenda – being convened primarily to tackle questions associated with the American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA) – is yet to be seen, legislators say.

"We've had conversations with state police, police chiefs, and the judiciary chairs," said 28th House District Representative Amy Morrin Bello. "We are concerned about the increases in car thefts, and I'm committed to continuing to work with those stakeholders to try and find solutions that will work."

A bipartisan group of Judiciary Committee members has been working on the issue throughout the summer.

Now, there's renewed impetus to meet a surge in motor vehicle break-ins and thefts with new legislative policies for juvenile repeat offenders in the wake of a June 29 incident, during which two youths led an individual they robbed at a Plainville gas station in a high-speed chase that resulted in a stolen car striking – and killing – a jogger in New Britain.

The 17-year-old perpetrator driving the car had reportedly been arrested 13 times.

"It took the death of a jogger in New Britain to make this happen," said 29th House District Representative Kerry Wood in a recent phone conversation. "All of us can agree we cannot wait for something awful to happen, and awful things have happened, so let's get ahead of this."

That was the rallying cry among municipal leaders heading into the regular session this past spring, with Newington Mayor Beth DelBuono, Rocky Hill Mayor Lisa Marotta, and Wethersfield Mayor Michael Rell joining 5 area towns in drafting a resolution requesting help from Governor Lamont in combating the car thefts that have hit their communities over the recent year.

"I'm happy the legislature has formed this bipartisan committee," Rell said last Friday. "If the experts believe simply putting juveniles in prison won't work, let's have a frank conversation to find out what will – whether it's better management of electronic devices or having our court system process adults involved in crimes where teenagers are used differently."

And while the legislative session yielded new fine and imprisonment penalties for adults that coerce juveniles into committing motor vehicle property crimes, lawmakers like Wood, a member of the moderate Blue Dog Democrats, say they're frustrated that other proposals – such as ankle bracelet GPS monitoring for repeat offenders, new restorative justice programs, a uniform juvenile crime database, expedited judicial hearings, and supervised community service opportunities – were left on the table.

"I wanted to get stuff done two months ago – I feel like we're very reactionary right now," Wood said. "I'm thankful that all of the right people are out the table now."

Wood says the group of Judiciary Committee Republicans and Democrats have been meeting with law enforcement personnel as they set their agenda for the coming special session. As a non-member of that Committee, Wood has been outside those meetings, but like other lawmakers, has been lending insight to the participants.

She says the group has a dozen or so core policy proposals they've agreed to discuss, and that they include the GPS monitoring, as well as early intervention for troubled youth, more funding for after school programs, and expedited arraignment.

"Nobody wants to see these kids thrown in jail, but there need to be consequences and the behavior needs to stop," Wood said.

What constitutes adequate consequence will differ depending on who you ask. Some frustrated residents in Newington – where police reported a 92 percent uptick in motor vehicle thefts in 2020 – have urged lawmakers to take an even harder line, casting blame on post-2012 juvenile justice reforms that hiked the minimum age at which offenders could be treated as adults.

2012 marked a shift in Connecticut juvenile justice policy – toward a more "restorative" approach to dealing with youthful offenders amid calls to keep kids out of the correctional system and avoid the costly pitfalls of long-term recidivism.

What resulted was legislation that:

- Raised the maximum juvenile age from 16 to 18

- Required police officers to obtain a court order to place a juvenile in temporary detention (and later, tightened the conditions for attaining said court order)

- Redirected all runaway and truancy cases from the juvenile court to a Youth Services Bureau

- Instituted a supervised, non-residential probationary program in lieu of DCF treatment of adjudicated individuals

- Reduced the list of Class B felonies that would warrant an automatic transfer from the juvenile to adult criminal court

- Closed the Connecticut Juvenile Training School in 2018

House Representative Gary Turco, who presides over Newington's 27th District, says the reforms have been largely beneficial, noting how overall crime plummeted prior to COVID – even juvenile prosecutors say that the problem segment of repeat youth offenders is marginal compared to those that have been rehabilitated by the state's focus on alternatives to incarceration.

Since the 2012 policy shift, youth crime – including motor vehicle thefts, save for the past 3 years and particularly 2020 – has been on the downtrend, according to Ken Barone, a data analyst for the Institute for Municipal and Regional Policy.

According to FBI Uniform Crime data from the Office of Policy and Management (OPM) website, motor vehicle thefts across the country went from over 1.2 million in 2005 to around 721,000 in 2019.

In Connecticut, the downtrend over that same period was from 10,609 to 5,694, according to data from OPM.

"The issue of car break-ins and thefts is not unique to Connecticut and has become a national problem since the start of the pandemic," Turco wrote in a letter to this publication. "In fact, the number of these crimes in 2019, before the pandemic, was at a record low. The pandemic and its countless challenges—including increased isolation, tragic loss, unemployment, a disruption in schooling, and financial hardship—to name a few, have contributed to the dramatic increase in many crimes that have negatively impacted our community."

But local leaders have been skeptical of claims attributing the uptick to COVID. Either way, something needs to be done, Rell said.

Last year Wethersfield Police fielded 324 vehicle break-in reports – a historic high. Last year's 75 car theft calls are topped only by the 83 Wethersfield saw back in 2017

"I don't care what the cause is," he said. "The result is people aren't safe leaving their cars unlocked. Donating clothes in Glastonbury [where a carjacking took place earlier this month]."

Turco's rallying cry was for lawmakers to take a balanced approach – one that keeps communities safe while steering chronic youth offenders onto a lawful path.

Bello echoed the sentiment.

"I don't want to throw kids in prison and I don't want repeat offenders getting released, only to commit the same crimes,"

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

I am writing to submit my letter of recommendation for Forrest C. Helvie from the town of Newington on his candidacy for the Board of Education. I met Forrest roughly 4 years ago when I was first running for State Representative. Forrest lives in my district and I was immediately drawn to his educational experience and his military background. I ran several controversial issues by him relating to education and Veterans when it came time for my votes. He is an endless resource for higher education issues due to his background as department chair and full-time faculty member at Norwalk Community College. I would also see Forrest at Boy Scout events and saw how dedicated he and his family are to the community. He's not only building a strong foundation for his own children, but as an advocate, educator, and Scout leader, he's helping shape Newington's next generation. Forrest's qualifications for Board of Education are innumerable. I wholeheartedly support his candidacy and urge all voters to spend time learning about Forrest Helvie during these upcoming municipal elections.

State Representative Kerry Wood (29th District)

Dear Editor,

We are writing to personally recommend that you vote for Forrest Helvie for Newington Board of Education. We first met Forrest in the Fall of 2018 at a Cub Scout informational meeting, and he was our daughter's den leader. From the start, it was clear that he was a leader within the Newington community, as a parent, and as an educator who advocates for all students.

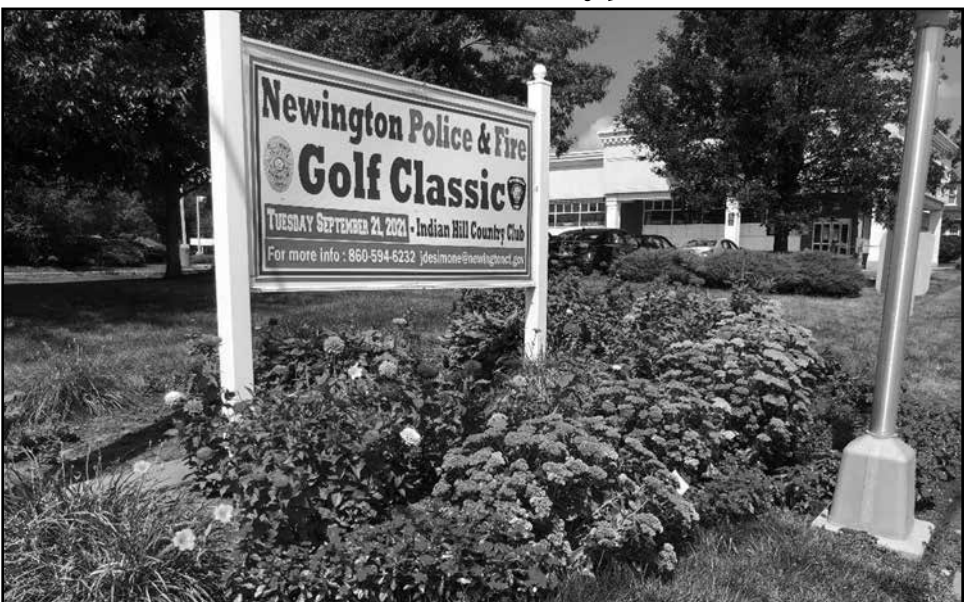

We have been able to witness him in action with the Scouts, acting both as a leader and guide, giving the Scouts (and their parents) opportunities to face challenges, learn, and grow. He took the time to address any personal questions or concerns we had to ensure our daughter had a great experience, and never made us feel like we were inconveniencing him. He truly cares on a personal level about the kids in this town, and using his skills and knowledge to make improvements where he is able.

We have had many personal conversations with Forrest over the years about his educational philosophy, and his views for what the Newington educational system should and could be like. His passion for education is evident in everything that he does. He is also fair, but unafraid to voice his opinions and concerns. He has shown that he will commit to such a leadership role and advocate for the whole community as well as the individual.

We could not think of a better person to join Newington's Board of Education. His years as an educator combined with his experience in the military would make Forrest an incredible asset to help guide the future of Newington Public Schools.

Superintendent Updates on Newington School Reopening Plans

by Mark DiPaola

The leading public health expert for five Hartford-area towns says he doesn't think the State Department of Education (SDE) should be pushing for full in-person learning with the surging Delta variant driving up COVID cases.

Central Connecticut Health District (CCHD) Director Charles Brown made the statement at the August 10 Town Council meeting in Newington, after Councilor Mike Camillo asked him, point blank, how he felt about this coming fall with COVID cases climbing among the younger age groups and many school-aged kids still unvaccinated.

"If it were up to me, I would not be bringing kids who are unvaccinated into a school setting where there will be even closer together than they were at the end of last year," Brown said.

Last week Brown said his preference would be the hybrid model districts like Newington used for a good chunk of this past academic year.

While Brown acknowledged the "other considerations" – such as learning loss and social emotional well-being – driving the SDE's reopening guidance to local school districts, he said that his opinion comes exclusively from a public health perspective.

Brown and the CCHD have been working with the Newington school district on reopening plans, which were released on August 20.

"We recognize the importance of returning students to school campuses for in-person instruction, as well as the overarching need to protect the health and safety of our students, school staff, and broader community," reads the Newington Public Schools (NPS) plan – available on the NPS website. "While we will never be able to totally eliminate the risk of spreading the COVID-19 virus, our goal is to plan for and implement measures to mitigate COVID-19 transmission in the school setting, while meeting the educational needs of all students."

NPS, in accordance with a Governor's executive order, will require all students and staff to wear masks indoors.

Social distancing continues to be put at premium, with 3-foot minimum separation in classrooms – where seating charts and designated workstations better enable controlled separation and precision contact tracing – and 6 feet elsewhere.

The district also plans to keep students in small group cohorts to minimize transmission risk, while limiting events and gatherings, the plan states.

The plan also includes the provision of sanitizing stations throughout the building, as well as handwashing breaks.

"The safest thing if we have to continue down that path is to ensure everyone is wearing a mask," Brown said. "This is not the time to take that protection away from our children – this is a serious public health event."

Governor Lamont agreed – on August 5 he renewed in-school mask mandates for all students, regardless of vaccination status.

Newington is currently in the State Department of Public Health's (DPH) red threat level, with 17 cases per 100,000.

Both Rocky Hill and Wethersfield – two other CCHD towns – are in red, while Berlin is in yellow.

Public health officials say that 80-90 percent of the positive cases seen in the State's 6-week surge can be attributed to the Delta variant – reported to be twice as contagious as previous strains and responsible for a higher rate of 'breakthrough' COVID cases in vaccinated individuals.

The uptick – from less than 1 percent statewide positivity to over 2.65 percent from July to mid-August – prompted the CDC to reverse course on guidance that vaccinated individuals need not wear masks indoors or outdoors, a pivot that's left many frustrated.

Last Friday, statewide infection rates were above 3 percent.

"We were told we would get the vaccine, herd immunity, and it'd be hunky dory. That's not happening," said Newington Councilor John Donahue. "When do we start treating it like the flu?"

"The vaccines are doing what they're supposed to, which is keep you out of the ICU or the morgue," Brown said. "But you can still transmit the virus to those that are unvaccinated."

And as ICU's become overwhelmed with new COVID cases, the healthcare system is finding that the vast majority of those hospitalized are unvaccinated, Brown noted.

As for herd immunity, that won't happen until the rest of the country catches up to states like Connecticut in their vaccination rollouts, and the global community reaches parity as it pertains to inoculation access, Brown said.

Until then, the world will be left wrestling with an ever-adapting coronavirus, he said.

"I was hopeful things would open up and get back to normal, and the bottom fell out," said Town Councilor Tim Manke. "I guess I see this going on and on for years, and I'm hoping I'm wrong."

Brown is urging CCHD communities to stick with the basics – handwashing, social distancing, and mask-wearing.

Some uniformity on the latter would help reduce spread in Connecticut, and the State can help, he says.

While Governor Lamont has left public COVID mitigation measures up to municipalities at this point, Brown says he lobbied aggressively – to no avail – for a uniform mask mandate.

"Not having a mask mandate statewide, to me, is foolish. It leaves us with a patchwork quilt that has gaps in it," he said. "I don't think it's a popular political position right now."

But he's asking local officials to take it up for their communities – last Friday night, Rocky Hill announced that it would be instituting an indoor mask mandate for all public settings, regardless of an individual's vaccination status.

Rocky Hill's masking rule exempts those with certain behavioral challenges and disabilities, as well as those that exercise social distancing indoors.

Op Ed: Policy Debate on Juvenile Crime

by Gary Turco

State Representative, Newington - 27th District

A debate is taking place at the Capitol this summer on what policy changes can help reduce the high levels of car break-ins, thefts, and other areas of juvenile crime that have plagued our community. Just like many of you, I am disgusted by the rising number of these crimes throughout Central Connecticut since the beginning of the pandemic.

I want to make it very clear that no one in our community should tolerate any type of crime. The safety of Newington residents is a top priority to me, and my stance on this is unwavering. No one in Newington, nor the rest of our state, should have to experience the frustration and heartbreak of property crime, or worse, violent crime. Reducing car theft, break-ins, and violent crime needs to be a top priority for all levels of government.

This past session, I worked with colleagues in a bipartisan effort to pass legislation to help mitigate the rise in these specific crimes. One new law we passed was aimed at increasing penalties for adults who entice minors to commit these crimes; enticement of minors will now be punishable with fines and prison time. There must be an adult buying the stolen catalytic converters, and we need to investigate and arrest these individuals. Also, over half of these crimes are being committed by individuals over the age of 18 accompanying juveniles. These individuals will now face stricter sentencing.

Another law we passed aimed to improve the judicial process when handling juvenile cases to decrease the time between arrest and the court appearance when sentencing occurs. Other laws will improve diversionary rehabilitation programs and examine the effectiveness of the detention process when requested by law enforcement. We also included additional services to be provided to high-risk youth.

There are additional bills I supported that did not pass, which would require GPS tracking of repeat offenders, increase accountability of crimes through restorative justice programs, and develop supervised community service opportunities. While these measures did not pass, there is currently a renewed will, due to some very unfortunate serious crimes committed this summer, to hold a special session in the fall to pass further legislation.

At the moment, there are two very different approaches being proposed on how state policy can do a better job in assisting local communities with reducing these crimes. One side is focused on increasing penalties and accountability of the perpetrators of these crimes and the other is focused on providing more community services for rehabilitation, investing in youth outreach, and focusing on prevention through examining the root causes. While these two sides are having difficulty agreeing, I believe, to actually help reduce these crimes permanently, we need a comprehensive approach that includes ideas from both viewpoints.

It is important that we address the issue of crime, and specifically, juvenile crime, to both benefit the safety of our community and to help at-risk youths, many who have been left behind in the state and require rehabilitation services and support. Addressing these crimes through both accountability and investments into prevention and diversionary services to help children before more serious crimes are committed will benefit all communities and enact long-lasting change towards juvenile crime rates.

To further explain why I think this comprehensive approach should be taken, it is essential to clarify some misinformation being spread in the community. First, the issue of car break-ins and thefts is not unique to Connecticut and has become a national problem since the start of the pandemic. In fact, the number of these crimes in 2019, before the pandemic, was at a record low. The pandemic and its countless challenges—including increased isolation, tragic loss, unemployment, a disruption in schooling, and financial hardship—to name a few, have contributed to the dramatic increase in many crimes that have negatively impacted our community.

So, let's not blame policies that were enacted before the pandemic when crimes rates were decreasing, such as the juvenile justice policy passed in 2011 known as 'Raise Your Age'. This policy tries juveniles of non-violent crimes in juvenile court rather than adult court. Mass incarceration of youth has proven time and time again not to have an effect on lowering these types of crimes. Furthermore, we have seen that jail sentences result in increased recidivism rates and hardened criminals.

The state's transition towards providing rehabilitative services and community diversionary programs instead of prison for juveniles was born out of best practices through data, policy analysis, and advisement from criminal justice and law enforcement experts. However, the state has not properly put the funding and resources behind these policies to ensure their success. For example, when the state closed the Connecticut Juvenile Training School in early 2018, a high-security juvenile jail in Middletown, it did not properly shift this funding directly into the community services. These services were expected to provide accountability and rehabilitation as an alternative to jail sentencing. As a result, the state was not properly set up for a rise in juvenile crime due to a pandemic and has failed these children and our communities, making a strong case for an immediate investment into prevention and rehabilitation services.

In 2019, the state created a new diversionary program within the court system for first or second-time offenders of property crimes like car thefts and break-ins. The program is designed to identify the specific rehabilitative and social services necessary to help get juveniles back on track. However, due to COVID-19, the program's implementation was delayed, only finally starting in December of 2020. The program is already seeing success and lowering recidivism rates, but more funding, personnel, and program support are needed to ensure its ongoing success.

While more funding in youth outreach and diversionary programs is necessary to target the root cause of juvenile crime, there are some youths that have become serious repeat offenders, and current community support services have shown to be ineffective in correcting their actions away from further crimes.

We should not give up on these youth. We should not lock them in jail and throw away the key. We should provide the additional resources as needed. However, there needs to be additional approaches that hold them properly accountable for their repeated actions. This may need to include greater use of residential facilities such as the juvenile detention center in Hartford, GPS monitoring, expedited court proceedings, expanded access of data on past convictions for law enforcement and judges to provide more appropriate sentencing, and supervised community service hours. Those who continue to commit serious crimes despite all the rehabilitation efforts need to be held properly accountable, and I strongly support many of the recommendations put forth by law enforcement and the prosecutor's office to do that.

While the debate continues, I am calling on both Democrats and Republicans, municipal and state leaders, law enforcement, and juvenile justice advocates to join together and find common ground compromises that help prevent these crimes from happening further, support our youth through proper funding of services and proper accountability for crimes, and make all of our communities safer from crime. While some prefer to just point fingers and shift blame on to others, I am committed to fostering and helping lead the efforts needed until these issues no longer plague us.

Dear Editor,

I am excited and happy to endorse Ken Lesser for Town Council. Ken's service to the town of Wethersfield is outstanding. As a former Town Councilor, a current Board of Education representative, and a volunteer in the community, Ken consistently and authentically strives to improve our community. His honest and genuine dedication to the community is real, and his past work in Wethersfield is evidence of his positive impact to our community.

Ken spearheaded efforts to form the Veteran's Commission, to give veterans a stronger voice in the community. He cares about the youth in Wethersfield, has served on the Youth Advisory Board and created the Career Advisory Board to match high school students with mentors in career fields of interest. Ken helped the Hunger Action Team, he led the creation of the Mayor's Charity Ball that successfully raised funds for those who need it most.

Ken approaches his work as an elected official with compassion and genuine dedication. He listens, assesses and works diligently to find the best solutions. His skills in business and finance are critical assets to the team. He approaches matters that come before the council and board with the best interests of the residents and students at the forefront of his mind. His vision for improvement and positive nature yield great results. With Ken's compassion, skills, experience and dedication, the residents benefit greatly!

Please join me in voting for Ken Lesser for Town Council.

If there is any issue to be had with the post-2012 reforms, it's the lack of follow-through on some things, Turco says – the state didn't redirect savings from the training school's 2018 closure to youth crime prevention initiatives, and a 2019 diversionary program for second-time offenders was sidelined by COVID.

"While more funding in youth outreach and diversionary programs is necessary to target the root cause of juvenile crime, there are some youths that have become serious repeat offenders, and current community support services have shown to be ineffective in correcting their actions away from further crimes," he wrote. "We should not give up on these youth. We should not lock them in jail and throw away the key. We should provide the additional resources as needed. However, there needs to be additional approaches that hold them properly accountable for their repeated actions."

That puts GPS monitoring, "greater use of residential facilities such as the juvenile detention center in Hartford", expanding police and judicial access to records on past juvenile convictions, and supervised community service hours on the table, he wrote.

"Those who continue to commit serious crimes despite all the rehabilitation efforts need to be held properly accountable, and I strongly support many of the recommendations put forth by law enforcement and the prosecutor's office to do that," Turco wrote.

Lawmakers like Wood have put a premium on centralized data collection and information sharing between municipalities – info that would help police identify repeat offenders.

Earlier this month, Governor Lamont announced that judges will be given around-the-clock access to juvenile records they need to determine whether to grant an officer's detention request.

"The juvenile that was arrested 13 times and stole a car and killed someone in New Britain," Wood said. "This type of thing would prevent that from happening."

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

I am enthused about the opportunity to endorse John Cascio to continue his service as a member of the Wethersfield Board of Education. I have known John for 20 plus years and have witnessed his profound professionalism and sincere commitment to the Town of Wethersfield while serving as a Board of Education member since 1989 and as a former Town Councilman. Over his many years of service, I have had the privilege of witnessing John's dedication to the Town's students, teachers, and faculty along with his consistent advocating for our children's best interests. He always strives for the highest level of excellence. I have also had the opportunity to work side by side with John over the past several years on numerous fundraising projects throughout the town. His support, energy, and drive is contagious. As a lifelong resident of Wethersfield, I fully support John Cascio's continued service with the Wethersfield Board of Education and I hope that come this November 2nd, you will strongly consider joining me in supporting John for Board of Education. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Annie Dillon

Police Chief Search Firm Narrows Down Candidates

by Mark DiPaola

The executive search firm hired to help Wethersfield find its next police chief has compiled a shortlist of top candidates, and town residents will have the chance to meet the finalists this fall, said Mayor Michael Rell.

The town hired Strategic Government Resources (SGR), a Texas-based executive talent recruiter that specializes in the municipal side – including public safety – this past spring.

SGR held a listening session with members of the public back in May to hear what residents want in their next chief. That went into a job description disseminated to SGR's national network of candidates.

Now, SGR has 15 resumes – selected from the wider pool of respondents – to sift through as they work their way down to a final five, according to Rell.

“We will get input from the public one way or another, similar to how we did it with the Town Manager position,” Rell said.

When the town hired Town Manager Gary Evans, he was one of four finalists that took part in a meet and greet with residents at the Keeney Cultural Center – just one leg of a process that included interviews with town department heads and staff.

And while the idea here will be similar, it probably won't be the same venue, the Mayor says.

“A week ago I was planning to have it at the community center, but now with the Delta variant surging, we may have to do that through Zoom,” Rell said.

He's shooting for some time in mid-September.

“I think the idea was to have a new chief hired and in place by October if not sooner,” Rell said.

The town has been looking for a replacement for former Police Chief James Cetran since he announced his retirement in January.

The process continued throughout a dispute between Cetran and Evans over his August 31 retirement date – which Cetran reneged on in a February 8 letter, prompting a Town Council hearing and his subsequent termination.

That's currently the subject of an appeal, as Cetran claims that he walked back his retirement – agreed to, as a condition for his January 18 return from administrative leave – because he felt the Evans had violated the terms of their deal by “micromanaging” disciplinary matters within the Department.

SGS, meanwhile, will be running its finalist recommendations by Evans and a Council search committee consisting of Councilors Pat Pentalow, Ryan Biggs, and Dan O'Connor – after which the frontrunners will be introduced to the public.

At the May 18 listening session, town resident participants said that they wanted the new chief to be an accessible, visible presence throughout the community.

They also recommended leaning toward internal candidates that would have a strong familiarity with the town.

Wethersfield Art League Announces Fall Events and New Classes

The Wethersfield Art League is thrilled to announce new Fall events. Welcome back members and we welcome new members of all skill levels! All classes, Workshops and Open Studios are at The Little Red Schoolhouse, 193 Wells Road, Wethersfield.

Fall Classes:

Beginners Acrylic 101 with Lorraine Ficara – Have you ever wanted to try painting? This is a special six-week beginners acrylic painting class that includes all of the materials. The Art League is offering this to the public and members for only $50. Relax and have fun at this introduction course. No art background or membership required. Members, please pass this information to your friends. Convenient times are being offered: Saturday 3:00 pm to 5:30 pm weekly starting September 18 (skipping October 9) for 6 weeks or Wednesday 5:30 pm to 8 pm weekly starting September 15 (skipping October 6 and 13) for 6 weeks. Contact Lorraine Ficara at 860-463-5415 (leave voice mail) or email lorraineficara1@cox.net.

Expressive Painting Experience with Diana Boehnert – Sunday September 19 from 9 am – 4 pm at the School House. Whether you are a novice or an experienced artist, you will certainly find this expressive-based painting experience a unique and valuable tool in discovering your own personal vision. Reconnect with the inner child within who knew that painting was JOY! This class is free to members but limited to 8 students. Materials fee $10 payable to instructor. Must commit the entire day and bring lunch. You will receive an email with instructions upon registration. Email mccartconnie7@gmail.com or call 860-989-1873.

Painting all Mediums with Diane Marinaro – Any good painting should contain an interesting pattern of values, light, medium and dark colors. An interesting line should encompass these shapes and there you have it! It's simple, not easy, but possible. Wednesdays year-round 10 am – 12 pm. $10 per session.

Fall Workshops:

Beginners Zentangle – Cheryl Cianci creates beautiful and fascinating images and patterns. Fun and relaxing. Increase focus on creativity and personal well-being. September 18 from 12 pm – 2:30 pm.

Advanced Zentangle – Cheryl Cianci will teach you to bring your skills to the next level or learn some new ones. September 25 from 12 pm – 2:30 pm.

Other Workshops are planned for October and November. See upcoming articles for further detail.

Fall Demos:

Demo: September 2, 6 pm – We are delighted to have Jane Zisk with her vast teaching and judging experience to come do a critique session for all of us to share. Learn what makes it work and get inspired! Open to the public at 6 pm. Pitkin Community Center at 30 Greenfield Street, Wethersfield.

Other Demos are planned for October 7 and November 4. See upcoming articles for further detail.

Events:

Our Plein Air Event – Our next Plein Air event will be on August 28 at Ferry Park in Rocky Hill, 1 pm – 3 pm. Artists of all skill sets can enjoy painting outdoors together and taking advantage of the beautiful landscapes at hand. Members and non-members welcomed!

Cove Arts and Crafts Show – Saturday October 2 from 10 am – 4 pm. Members can drop off some of their artwork and we're asking for volunteers to help during the event. Please call Pat at 860-306-2079.

Memorial Open House for Lieschen Seabeck and Silvia Slattery – October 3 from 2 – 4 pm. Parking is limited so car-pooling is appreciated. Both artists provided many years of fun, laughter and hard work to the Wethersfield Art League. Contributions from many have allowed us to provide a new art hanging system and bookcase for the School House. Please come see the new additions and celebrate their lives. 193 Wells Road, Wethersfield.

The following Open Studios continue for artists of all levels:

Painting – Come to relax and paint with other members. Mondays, 10 am – 12 pm, year-round

Monitored by Eileen Guerrini. New and current members of all skill levels welcome

Open Studio with Woodworkers – Join in the art of woodcarving with this amazing talented group of artists on Thursdays starting September 9 from 1 pm – 3 pm.

Membership Drive is August and September. Many new classes, workshops and plein air events are being planned for the fall.

For further details on membership and to sign up for these events, please email Pat Yagmin at patriciayagmin@gmail.com. Also visit us on Facebook at Wethersfield Art League.

Upcoming Events at Wethersfield Academy for the Arts

Wethersfield Academy for the Arts has re-opened for in studio Youth and Adult Programs.

Concert

Friday, September 24th, 7:30 - 9:00 pm, Keeney Center
Miss Maybell & the Jazz Age performs music from Ragtime to Jazz - presented as a collaborative effort between the Wethersfield Academy for the Arts and Wethersfield Historical Society. Suggested donation $20; BYOB. Social distancing.

Youth Programs

DaVinci Drawing
Instructor: Veronique Fournier-Wynne
Begins September 13th; 6 week class; Mondays - any 2 hours between 3:00 pm - 8:00 pm

This classical drawing course was designed for youth in grades 9 to 12 (12 to 19 years old).

Students will increase their visual literacy by applying a drawing process, learning new techniques for identifying and correcting drawing errors and practicing their hand-eye coordination. Students will learn these drawing skills by re-creating a Bargue plate as they learn proportion, values, and other essential drawing skills. These are time-honored methods of learning to draw what you see in training for future art endeavors.

Oil Painting for Youth

Instructor: Veronique Fournier-Wynne
Begins September 15th; 6 week class, Wednesdays - any 2 hours between 3:00 pm - 8:00 pm

Learn to paint realistically with the oil paint medium. Everyone will work at their own learning pace. You can paint a still life arrangement or paint a mastercopy portrait. Working in sight-size and from life, we will examine the process beginning with the preliminary composition on paper in graphite then the transfer to canvas. Students will learn how to mix accurate values and colors and how to create a realistic sense of dimensional form. This class is appropriate for ages 10 years old through teens.

Adult Workshops

Still Life in Oils - In studio
Instructor: Carlo Russo
4-day workshop, September 9th - 12th - 9:30 am - 4:30 pm

Workshop will focus on still life painting fundamentals. Start with a simple line drawing then transfer it to a pre-primed panel. Develop the painting using a multi-step process giving the objects a strong sense of form, color and depth. The instructor will offer daily demonstrations, individual help and critique of work.

Adult Classes

Bargue / Cast Drawing
Instructor: Veronique Fournier-Wynne
6 weeks – Sept. 13th, 20th, 27th; Oct. 4th, 18th, 25th

Choose any 3 hour period from 3:00 - 8:00 pm

This is the beginning of drawing with the Charles Bargue discipline to train your eye to see. This is also a great refresher for experienced artists. Students start with graphite pencil on paper, receiving demonstrations on materials, how to approach a drawing, sight-size and comparative measurement drawing, and tricks to aid in the making of more representational drawings. The curriculum starts with simple projects and moves progressively onto harder more complex work, each one incorporating more techniques to build upon previous lessons. Emphasis is on accuracy and training your eye so as not to be dependent on grids or tracing, thus making it possible to pursue drawing actively and freely in other areas like portraiture from life and landscape sketching. Includes Bargue plates.

Portrait Drawing One-Day Workshop with Kathryn Engberg Postponed from Aug. 22, to be held Aug. 29; 9am to 3:30pm

Strengthen your drawing skills with a female model in one long pose. Demonstrations and personal guidance for all skill levels. FREE membership to new enrollees for this workshop. info@wethersfieldarts.org

Oil Painting Still Life or Mastercopy

Instructor: Veronique Fournier-Wynne
6 weeks, Sept. 15th, 22nd, 29th; Oct. 6th, 13th, 20th

Choose any 3 hour period from 3:00 - 8:00 pm

Learn to paint realistically with the oil paint medium. Everyone will work at their own pace, allowing both beginners and experienced painters to join. You can paint a still life arrangement or paint a mastercopy portrait. We will look at different techniques from the Renaissance to the 19th Century, including the Flemish technique and the technique of Bouguereau. Working in sight-size and from life, we will examine the process beginning with the preliminary composition on paper in graphite then the transfer to canvas. This class is appropriate for teens through adults.

Wethersfield UMC Clothing Donations

Cleaning out your closets? You can bring your used clothing donations to Wethersfield United Methodist Church at 150 Prospect St. in Wethersfield. The church is now partnering with St. Pauly Textile Inc. to provide a wood-frame clothing drop-off shed for community use (see pictures).

This shed is designed to give community members a uniquely clean, convenient, and well-cared-for option to donate their used clothing to. St. Pauly Textile Inc. partners with businesses and various organizations to distribute donated items both here in the U.S. and worldwide, where they're ultimately re-worn by people who need them. Wethersfield United Methodist Church receives funding for donated clothing, and additionally has the option to use donations to serve community needs.

With over 1,300 clothing drop-off sheds in place, St. Pauly Textile Inc. collects over 90,000 pounds of clothing every day and estimates that this clothing ends up in 44 different countries (including the U.S.) yearly. In 2019, the company was able to help keep over 20 million articles of clothing out of landfills, which clothed an estimated 2.5 million people worldwide. The company was founded in 1996 and is an A+ rated member of the Better Business Bureau.

Accepted items: clothing, shoes, belts, purses, blankets, sheets, curtains, pillowcases, and stuffed animals. 1/14/21

Call-in Caregivers Support Group

Caregivers support groups provide emotional, educational and social support in a positive and uplifting atmosphere for those who care for an older loved one, particularly those with dementia. For many years, Hartford HealthCare Center for Healthy Aging has offered monthly in-person support groups at numerous senior living communities and senior centers to focus on stages of the disease, communication, strategies and family dynamics.

To observe safe social practices, Hartford HealthCare Center for Healthy Aging is hosting two call-in caregivers support groups each week led by dementia specialists and resource coordinators. The call-in groups are held Mondays, 10 a.m., and Fridays, 2 p.m. At the meeting time, participants can call 860.972.6338 and enter access code 19623#.

Participants do not need to have attended a caregivers support group in the past. Confidential discussion and telephonic assessments can also be had one-on-one with a dementia professional outside of the online group. 7/30/20

Friendship Force Connecticut (a chapter of FF-International) sponsors outbound visits to other states and nations and hosts inbound visits from reciprocal clubs. Our chapter has resumed full travel activities, as well as monthly group social activities. Our members are travelling to Wisconsin this August and our next outbound visit is to Milwaukee, WI, August 2021, where our ambassadors will stay in the homes of the host club members and partake in activities and meals of the local residents.

In October, we will be hosting ambassadors from Oregon in our own homes and show them the glories of Connecticut. Next year, we will travel to Tallahassee, FL and to Cornwall, UK, while hosting guests from Colorado. If you would like to join Friendship Force and travel with our club and host members from other clubs, subject to your own availability, please contact Ginger (ginger43@cox.net) for more information. 7/29/21

CCD Call for Members

Do you enjoy seeing your town revitalized? Do you want to support local businesses? Are you a creative thinker? If so, then you belong in Cromwell Creative District (CCD)! CCD is a completely volunteer-run nonprofit that works collaboratively with local businesses, nonprofits, and civic groups to attract business and visitors to the historic and riverfront areas of downtown Cromwell. Whether your interest is in volunteering on a specific project, sharing creative ideas, or taking on a leadership role within the group, Cromwell Creative District has something for you! CCD currently holds meetings virtually/telephonically at 9am on the third Saturday of each month. Learn more at www.facebook.com/cromwellcreativedistrict and www.cromwellcreativedistrict.org and "Rethink How You See Cromwell!" 8/19/21

New Auxiliary Members Welcome

American Legion Auxiliary Carson-Sjovall Unit #105 is seeking new members. We donate to veterans' needs through our programs, such as our annual Poppy Drive. This is a great opportunity to give back to our veterans and their families. For more information, please call Cathy Kelley at 860-635-8693. 8/19/21

Toastmasters

Bloomfield Toastmasters is dedicated to improving public speaking and interpersonal communication techniques among the local and on-line community. We offer our practice, training and positive feedback twice monthly at 7pm on the 2nd and 4th Tuesdays. Our transition to Zoom meetings has helped our members and guests to practice and improve their on-line exchanges in social, business and family settings. We periodically have joint meetings with other local Toastmasters clubs. For further info or to attend our next meeting, send an email to: contact-7139@toastmastersclubs.org 7/1/21

MOVIE MONDAYS AT 1PM:

SEPT 6: "BRIAN BANKS" Drama (PG-13) 2019 1hr 40 mins

The inspirational true story of Brian Banks, an All-American high school football star committed to USC who finds his life upended when he is wrongly convicted of a crime he didn't commit. Despite lack of evidence, Banks is railroaded through a broken justice system and sentenced to a decade of prison and probation. Years later, with the support of Justin Brooks and the California Innocence Project, Banks fights to reclaim his life and fulfill his dreams of playing in the NFL.

SEPT 13: "MADE IN ITALY" Indy Heartfelt Comedy (R) 2020 1hr 34mins

When London artist Robert travels to Italy with his estranged son to sell the house they've inherited, they're shocked at the villa's condition. As they work on repairs, their relationship becomes even more strained, but a bond slowly begins to form.

SEPT 20: "DOWNTON ABBEY" Drama, Period piece (PG) 2019 2hrs 2mins

The beloved Crawleys and their intrepid staff prepare for the most important moment of their lives. A royal visit from the King and Queen of England unleashes scandal, romance and intrigue that leave the future of Downton hanging in the balance.

SEPT 27: "MOLLY'S GAME" Drama Based on Book (R) 2017 2hrs 2mins

Molly's Game is based on the true story of Molly Bloom, an Olympic-class skier who ran the world's most exclusive high-stakes poker game for a decade before being arrested in the middle of the night by 17 FBI agents wielding automatic weapons. Her players included Hollywood royalty, sports stars, business titans and finally, unbeknownst to her, the Russian mob. Her only ally was her criminal defense lawyer Charlie Jaffey, who learned that there was much more to Molly than the tabloids led us to believe.

"BOB STEELE ON THE RADIO: THE LIFE OF CONNECTICUT'S BELOVED BROADCASTER"

THURSDAY, SEPT. 16 AT 12PM - Presented by Connecticut author, Paul Hensler

Author of the first ever biography on Bob Steele, beloved broadcaster, radio voice of Southern New England will be here to share history, home-life and award-winning career of this Connecticut media legend.

DIAL-A-RIDE; THURSDAY, SEPT. 23 AT 12PM - If you no longer drive or need reliable transportation to stay independent, Dial-A-Ride may be your answer. Learn more about this valuable service, how it works, who is eligible and how to get started. Representatives from Curtin Transportation and Town Hall will attend to answer questions and hear your input. A great option, especially during the winter months.

CRT LUNCH PROGRAM: CRT continues to offer weekly pickup of (5) frozen prepared meals for suggested donation of $15. Please contact the Senior Center no later than the Thursday prior to Monday pickup to reserve your meals. At this time the Senior Café remains closed.

RED ONION SENIOR QUILTERS: MONDAY, SEPT. 20; 10AM

Share your love of quilting and sharpen your skills. All skill levels welcome. The group shares quilting techniques, works on a "block of the month" and quilts for local charities and hospitals.

WETHERSFIELD SOCIAL & YOUTH SERVICES (860)721-2977

The WS&YS Department is available to provide assistance and services if you are experiencing financial difficulties or need access to food, basic needs, or transportation. Wethersfield Seniors are reminded that Christine Taylor, social worker and Elderly Services Coordinator in the WS&YS Department at Town Hall, can assist with your social service needs and questions. Chris is the Town's Municipal Agent for the Elderly and Veteran's Resource contact person. She can discuss federal, state and local assistance programs such as energy assistance, renters rebate, tax assistance, food stamps, housing resources and more. Chris is also a certified CHOICES counselor who can help with your Medicare questions and decisions. She also helps seniors obtain services to remain at home and offers supports for caregivers. If you have questions or concerns, don't hesitate to contact Chris at 860-721-2977 or email chris.taylor@wethersfieldct.gov.

Bus routes for Rocky Hill Public Schools can be found on the district website at www.rockyhillps.com, the week of August 23, 2021. Please keep in mind the routes are subject to change. All students should be at their bus stops at least 10 minutes prior to the bus stop posted time.

Special Transportation

The office of the Director of Special Education and Pupil Services will notify parents of the arrangements for students in special education programs.

Kindergarten Routes

All Kindergarten students must be met at the bus stop by a parent or authorized adult.

Safety and Bus Behavior

Students transported, in the interest of safety, must observe rules of good behavior, and be considerate of others. They must be seated immediately and remain seated while the vehicle is in motion. Students misbehaving and failing to abide by regulations may be denied the privilege of riding on school buses either temporarily or permanently.

Bus Stops

The maximum walking distances to a prescribed point of embarkation are the following: (1) kindergarten, one mile; (2) elementary schools, one mile; (3) middle school, one and one-half mile; (4) high school, two miles. It is the Board of Education's firm belief that parents/guardians are responsible for insuring proper supervision of their children as they walk to and from bus stops and while waiting for the bus at such stops.

Such supervision extends to daycare operators and other non-parental guardians providing oversight to children. This belief also includes, but is not limited to, cases where supervision may be necessary to gain access to a sidewalk located on the opposite side of the street as a child walks to a bus stop. For more information, please refer to BOE policies at www.rockyhillps.com.

All bus stop requests or concerns should be directed to the B.O.E Central Office at 860-258-7701 ext. 31166. Neither the bus drivers nor the bus company can change stops without prior approval from the B.O.E. Central Office. New Britain Transportation is our transportation provider.

New Registrations

To pre-register for the 2021-22 school year, please visit www.rockyhillps.com and click on Central Registration found under District Info. Instructions and requirements for school registration are outlined on the 2021-22 School Year Registration page. Questions, call or email Mr. Thomas Kennison at (860) 258-7701 Ext. 31177. # "If I had it to do over again..."

... I'd spend more time with my family."

When people reflect on their lives, they very seldom say, "If only I'd spent more time at my job." But they often say, "If only I had enjoyed my family more."

Labor Day may seem like a less important day than other holidays, yet it is the one day we are encouraged to put our work aside to relax and enjoy our family.

We trust that you will have a special holiday and it will enable you to take more time to enjoy life.

Toast the season with a literary-inspired cocktail

Come the holidays, many people engage in various customs and rituals that make the season even more special. One person may bake dozens of cookies to share with friends and family, while another may go caroling with the church choir.

Reading familiar stories and watching classic Christmas movies also are part and parcel of many celebrations. For example, "A Christmas Carol," a novella by Charles Dickens that was published in 1843, is a must-read and must-see for many people each holiday season. The story is the tale of the miserly Ebenezer Scrooge, who is visited by various ghosts, each of whom teaches Scrooge an important lesson about living life to its fullest. Many local theater companies put on productions of the classic Dickens tale around the holiday season. Holiday celebrants and fans of "A Christmas Carol" can raise a toast to Charles Dickens by enjoying one of his favorite cocktails, the "Sherry Cobbler," courtesy of Margaret Kaplan's "How to Drink Like a Writer: Recipes for the Cocktails and Libations that Inspired 100 Literary Greats" (Apollo Publishing). While Dickens did not mention the Sherry Cobbler in "A Christmas Carol," the beverage does make an appearance in another of his works, "The Life and Adventures of Martin Chuzzlewit."

Charles Dickens's Sherry Cobbler
Serves 1

- 2 orange slices
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 4 ounces amontillado sherry
- Berries (in season) for garnishing
- Maraschino cherries for garnishing
- 1 lemon wheel for garnishing

Muddle orange slices and sugar at the bottom of a cocktail shaker. Add sherry and ice and shake. Strain ingredients into a Collins glass filled with crushed ice. Garnish with seasonal berries, maraschino cherries and a lemon wheel. Serve with a generosity of spirit.

OUR PET PAGE

ANIMAL ALLIANCE WELFARE LEAGUE is an all volunteer animal welfare organization devoted to preventing the suffering of homeless animals in our community. Our animal welfare organization provides TNR (Trap-Neuter-Release) of community cats in the central Connecticut area. Should you wish to adopt a cat or kitten; volunteer to feed community cat colonies in the City of New Britain; donate to our special needs cats and kitten, please contact Marie at 860-632-0863. Our mailing address is P.O. Box 1775, New Britain, Connecticut 06050. Thank you for your compassion for the animals.

BLACK & WHITE FEMALE CATS: 2 available, friendly, spayed, litter box trained, indoor animals. Free to a good home. 860-613-2944 before 2pm.

		Names: Duke &amp; Petunia
		Gender: Male/Female
		Breed: DSH
		Color: Grey &amp; White/Calico
		Age: 1 year/1.5 years
Duke and Petunia are a bonded mom and son who must be adopted together. Duke is a handsome boy who likes chasing ping pong balls and purrs when petted. When he gets familiar with you, he will sit on laps and enjoys being held. Petunia is a sweet, cautious cat. She enjoys looking out the window at birds and chipmunks or playing with her toy mouse. Duke and Petunia provide emotional support to each other, and they spend a lot of time together. Ideally, they need a quiet house with a family that will allow them as much time and love as they need to settle in. No Dogs / No Children

JOY IS A STUNNING, YOUNG BEAUTY with big ears and big emerald eyes. She enjoys following you around and hopping up for pets. She is happy and loves her treats. Joy frightens easily and runs off but she will be back in no time. This behavior will lessen with time as she gains confidence so an understanding home is best. Please fill out an application on our website at www.hucatresearch.org. Call 860-479-5173 or email hucatresearch@gmail.com.

LITTLE GRACIE IS SEARCHING for an understanding home. She is as cute as a button with a big personality. She can be a little feisty because she scares easily and has a big imagination. She does let her favorite volunteer hold her so she will do the same for a loving person who gives her time and attention. Please fill out an application on our website at www.hucatresearch.org. Call 860-479-5173 or email hucatresearch@gmail.com.

BRING HOME A FRIEND

BRODY IS A REGAL, HANDSOME, masculine boy. He is very playful and really enjoys life. He absolutely loves treats and will give you big eyes for them. He also enjoys being with you and enjoys petting to a certain point. Brody is a bit tough on other male cats. Please fill out an application on our website at www.hucatresearch.org. Call 860-479-5173 or email hucatresearch@gmail.com.

OUR GORGEOUS, SENIOR LADY, Gabby is still in need of a home or a permanent foster home. She's loving, grateful and independent. Gabby doesn't care for other cats but she could live with another cat if she had her own little retreat. Gabby is on a small dose of thyroid medication which we would provide. She's lovely and ready to meet you and she is also a polydactyl! Please fill out an application on our website at www.hucatresearch.org. Call 860-479-5173 or email hucatresearch@gmail.com.

ANNUAL PET PHOTO CONTEST
Get those cameras or cell phones out and snap a winning photo of your dog or cat! Submit entry via email (ritttyratcat@yahoo.com) or snail mail (FOBAC, 12 Four Rod Rd., Berlin CT 06037) or drop off at shelter (600 Christain Lane Berlin). Contest takes place during Berlin Fair in September and fairgoers can stop by our booth and vote for their favorites!!! Urge your friends & family to vote! One dog winner and one cat winner will receive a huge gift basket specially made for them. Entry forms at Berlin Petsmart near the Cat Center. $10 entry fee per pet can be paid via paypal or check. Please call FOBAC 860-828-5287 for more details.

CRITTER SITTERS OF NEWINGTON: Daily/Vacation In-Home Dog/Cat Care, Overnight Pet/House Sitting. Bonded/insured/experienced. Pets stay safe, healthy & happy while you're away. Visit us online at WWW.CRITTERSITTERSCT.COM or call 860-306-2334.

REHOMING A PET is never an easy decision but in those rare circumstances where it is necessary to rehome a pet, do so responsibly and humanely. Adoptapet.com now has a Rehome feature to help families who have made the decision to rehome a pet. Shelters and rescue groups focus on those pets in urgent need of help and those that have been abandoned. Rather than placing your pet in overcrowded shelters, Rehome is a better option. For those families that might need help getting through a little rough patch, we recommend the retention site at <https://rehome.adoptapet.com/help-keep-pet>

Adopt A Pet or two

	Willow is a lovely, young adolescent kitty. She just finished being a wonderful mom to five adorable babies. Willow is a five-star kitty! ### SAVE A SHELTER PET TODAY

	Cosmo, Greta and Hans are three of Willow's beautiful kittens. They are striking brown and black tabbies and ready for their forever homes. Please keep in mind that adopting a kitten is a 15-20 year commitment and if you do not have any other pets, at this age, they will have to go home in a pair. Please fill out an application on our website at www.hucatresearch.org. Call 860-479-5173 or email hucatresearch@gmail.com.

ADOPT A BARN CAT. We have several beautiful barn kitties available that were recently rescued from an unwelcoming, dangerous area. These working cats make friends easily with farm animals. They are also excellent in warehouses and greenhouses. The property owner's responsibility will be to provide daily food/water, protection from the elements, and long-term vet care. After a short period of secure confinement, the cats will accept your barn as their new home and clean up the place of any rodents. Please fill out an application on our website at www.hucatresearch.org. Call 860-479-5173 or email hucatresearch@gmail.com.

PET OF THE WEEK

	Jackson is a 7 year old Yellow Lab. He weighs about 85-90 lbs and is a very friendly boy. Jackson loves to walk and be out on the town. After taking a nice walk he still has energy to play. This boy is a young senior with plenty of energy to enjoy anything you want to do. Jackson has lived with another dog in his past and could do well given the right fit.

Meet Ace!

At 6 years old and 60 lbs, Ace is a lover of snuggles, loves to run and play ball, and of course, napping in the sun! His goofy side is evident when playing catch and then there is the snuggly side when everyone is on the couch. Presently, he lives with another dog and they get along well. His ideal home would be a single family home with adults and a large yard, a fence would be a plus! If interested, please contact Our Companions at

WHISKERS PET RESCUE is a no-kill animal welfare organization with an adoption center located in Bennett Square in Southbury. We are a nonprofit charity made up entirely of volunteers committed to caring for animals who have been abandoned, injured, abused or neglected. Should you wish to adopt a whiskered kitty or make a donation to our animal shelter to be utilized towards our spay-neuter program, please mail to Whiskers Pet Rescue, 134 Main St., South Southbury, CT 06488. Please ask our volunteer staff about our senior to senior kitty adoption program where our kitties are adopted by senior citizens and veteran. Our staff at our animal shelter can be reached at 203-586-1666. Thank you for assisting our homeless whiskered friends!

How Pet Owners Can Prepare for Disasters in Advance

The need to prepare for natural disasters is never more apparent than right after an especially harsh storm touches down. But disaster preparation should be a proactive endeavor, as taking action before a storm can make confronting the storm that much easier.

Pet owners must give extra thought to disaster preparedness to ensure their pets can make it through harsh storms unscathed. Natural disasters like storms and fires can put pets in jeopardy, so it's vital that pet owners take the steps necessary to protect their furry friends before such disasters strike.

- Place a rescue alert sticker on your front door or window. Rescue alert stickers alert first responders to the presence of pets in a home. The ASPCA recommends placing the sticker on the front door or window (visit aspc.org to receive a free sticker). Include the types and numbers of pets in the home as well as the name and phone number of your veterinarian.
- Learn about local safe havens. If pet owners must evacuate in the case of a coming storm, their pets must evacuate as well. Some animal shelters provide emergency shelter for pets and/or can arrange for pets to be fostered until their owners can safely return home. It's vital to conduct this research in advance, as the ASPCA notes that not all shelters can accommodate pets during storms or other emergencies. Knowing which ones do can ensure pets have a safe place to go should disaster strike.

- Stock up on emergency supplies. The ASPCA recommends pet owners plan as if they won't be allowed to return home for several weeks, even if they suspect their time away will be much shorter. Speak with your vet about what to include in a pet first-aid kit, and be sure to bring at least several days' worth of canned (pop-top) or dry food. Disposable litter trays, liquid dish soap and disinfectant and an extra collar or harness and extra leash are some additional emergency supplies to pack. A full list of recommended emergency supplies can be found at aspc.org.
- Make sure pets wear collars and tags at all times. Disaster can strike at any time, so it's vital that pets wear their identification tags and collars at all times. The ASPCA urges pet owners to include pets' names and any urgent medical needs on the tags. A telephone number where owners can be reached at all hours of the day should be included on tags as well.
- Take location into account. The ASPCA advises pet owners who live in regions prone to certain disasters to find rooms in their homes which can serve as safe havens during storms. Many storms do not require evacuations, but that does not mean pets won't be frightened. Safe rooms should be clear of windows and be easily accessible and easy to clean. Disaster preparedness includes strategies to keep pets safe in the wake of storms or other potentially hazardous situations.

The Cromwell Public Schools announced today its policy for determining eligibility of children who may receive free or reduced-price meals served under the National School Lunch Program (NSLP) and School Breakfast Program (SBP), Seamless Summer Option (SSO) of the NSLP, or free milk served under the Special Milk Program (SMP).

Local school officials have adopted the United States Department of Agriculture's (USDA) Income Eligibility Guidelines (IEGs) for family size and income criteria for determining eligibility. The following income guidelines will be used in Connecticut from July 1, 2021, to June 30, 2022, for determining eligibility of participants for free and reduced-price meals and free milk in the Child Nutrition Programs.

Income Guidelines for Child Nutrition Programs: July 1, 2021 to June 30, 2022 *
Free meals						Reduced-price meals
Household Size	Annual gross income	Monthly gross income	Twice per month	Every two weeks gross income	Weekly gross income	Household Size	Annual gross income	Monthly gross income	Twice per month	Every two weeks gross income	Weekly gross income

- monthly income is calculated by dividing the annual income by 12;
- twice monthly income is computed by dividing annual income by 24;
- income received every two weeks is calculated by dividing annual income by 26; and
- weekly income is computed by dividing annual income by 52.

All numbers are rounded upward to the next whole dollar.

For school year 2021-22, the Cromwell Public Schools has opted to participate in the Seamless Summer Option of the NSLP. Therefore, all student meals offered will be free of charge for this school year. However, in order to determine if students are eligible for other benefits such as Pandemic Electronic Benefit Transfer (P-EBT) (as applicable), households are encouraged to complete and submit a free and reduced-price school meal application.

Students residing in households with income at or below the levels shown in the chart above are eligible for free or reduced-price meals or free milk. Application forms will be sent home along with a letter to parents. To apply for free or reduced-price meals or free milk, households should fill out the application and return it to the school. Additional copies are available in each school office and on the district website. Only one application is required per household and an application for free or reduced-price benefits cannot be approved unless it contains complete eligibility information as indicated on the application and instructions.

The information provided on the application is confidential and will be used only for the purposes of determining eligibility and for administration and enforcement of the lunch, breakfast, milk, and P-EBT programs. Additionally, all school-aged students in income-eligible households can receive school meal benefits regardless of a student's immigration status, and the district/school does not release information for immigration-related purposes in the usual course of operating the CNPs. Note that the district may share your eligibility information with education, health, social service, and nutrition programs to help them evaluate, fund, or determine benefits for their programs, auditors for program reviews, and law enforcement officials to help them look into violations of program rules. This information may also be verified at any time during the school year by school or other program officials. Applications may be submitted at any time during the year.

For up to 30 operating days into the new school year, eligibility from the previous year will continue within the same local educational agency (LEA). When the carry-over period ends, unless the household is notified that the students are directly certified or the household submits an application that is approved, the students must pay full price for SBP and NSLP school meals during SY 2021-22 unless the school or district is implementing the SSO for SY 2021-22 which allows meals to be served free of charge to all students. Households will not be sent a reminder or a notice of expired eligibility in those districts participating in the National School Lunch or Breakfast Programs

No application is required if the district directly certifies a student based on a household member receiving assistance from the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) or the Temporary Family Assistance (TFA) program. All students in these households are eligible for free meal benefits. Households receiving assistance under the SNAP/TFA programs will be notified of their eligibility and students residing in the household will be provided free benefits unless the household notifies the determining official that it chooses to decline benefits. If any students were not listed on the eligibility notice, the household should contact the district or school to have free meal benefits extended to those students. Households receiving SNAP or TFA benefits for their children should only submit an application if they are not notified of their eligibility by August 30, 2021.

Some students may be directly certified for free or reduced-price meals based on Medicaid (HUSKY A). No application is required if the district directly certifies a student based on Medicaid (HUSKY A). All students in these households are eligible for free or reduced-price meal benefits. Households receiving assistance under Medicaid (HUSKY A) will be notified of their eligibility and their children will be provided free or reduced-price benefits accordingly, unless the household notifies the determining official that it chooses to decline benefits. If any students were not listed on the eligibility notice, the household should contact the district or school to have free or reduced-price meal benefits extended to those students.

If a student is not directly certified, the household should complete a free and reduced-price meal application form. The application for the SNAP or TFA households require the SNAP or TFA case number and the households may be asked to provide proof of the SNAP or TFA case number. The signature of an adult household member is also required.

Students in households participating in the Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants and Children (WIC) may be eligible for free or reduced-price meals. Please send in an application or contact the determining official for more information.

When known to the district/school, households will be notified of any student's eligibility for free meals if the individual student is Other Source Categorically Eligible because the student is categorized as either: Homeless; runaway as defined by law and determined by the district's or school's homeless liaison; or enrolled in an eligible Head Start or pre-kindergarten class as defined by law. Households with students who are categorically eligible under Other Source Categorically Eligible Programs should complete an application and check-off the relevant box. Questions should be directed to the determining official. For any student not listed on the eligibility notice, the households should contact the school or determining official about any student also eligible under one of these programs or should submit an income application for the other students.

Households notified of their children's eligibility must contact the determining official or school if it chooses to decline the free meal benefits. If households/students are not notified by the district/school of their free meal benefits and they receive benefits under qualifying public assistance programs or under Other Source Categorically Eligible Programs, the parent/guardian should contact the determining official or their school.

Foster children that are under the legal responsibility of a foster care agency or court, are categorically eligible for free meals. A foster parent does not have to complete a free/reduced meal application if they can submit a copy of the legal document or legal court order showing that the student is a foster child. Additionally, a foster child may be included as a member of the foster family if the foster family chooses to also apply for benefits. If the foster family is not eligible for free or reduced-price meal benefits, it does not prevent a foster child from receiving free school meals. Note however, that a foster child's eligibility for free school meals does not automatically extend to all students in the household.

Application forms for all other households require a statement of total household income, household size and names of all household members. The last four digits of the social security number of an adult household member must be included or a statement that the household member does not have one. The adult household member must also sign the application certifying that the information provided is correct.

Under the provisions of the policy for determining eligibility for free and reduced-price meals, the Food & Nutrition Coordinator (860)632-4840 will review applications and determine eligibility. If a parent/guardian is dissatisfied with the ruling of the determining official, they may wish to discuss the decision with the determining official on an informal basis. If they wish to make a formal appeal, a request either orally or in writing, may be made to Ann Burke, Director of Financial Services 9 Mann Memorial Drive Cromwell, CT 06416 (860) 632-4837 for a hearing to appeal the decision.

The policy contains an outline of the hearing procedure. Each school and the central office of the school district has a copy of the policy, which may be reviewed by an interested party.

If a household member becomes unemployed or if household size changes at any time, the household should contact the school to file a new application. Such changes may make the students of the household eligible for reduced-price meals, free meals, or free milk, if the household income falls at or below the levels shown in the Income Guidelines.

Questions regarding the application process may be directed to the determining official at (860)632-4840

This is the Public Release we will send on August 26, 2021 to the following news media outlets, the local unemployment office, major employers contemplating layoffs, etc.

Clark: The Voice of the Wethersfield Eagles

by Josh Howard

If you've been to a Wethersfield High School athletic event over the past three years you've heard the distinctive voice of Jimmie Clark.

Clark has been the public address/play-by-play announcer at nearly every Eagles home game since 2018.

The polished product you hear now has been refined from his early days announcing a 'Hoops for Heart' event in middle school.

His first official announcing gig came in 2017 as a freshman at WHS, "The first game I did was soccer at Cottone, and I was a nervous wreck."

Upon getting home from the game, his mom told him she got a call from Athletic Director Mike Maltese, "I thought 'oh no, what did I do now?'" but he told her that I was a rockstar and that they are keeping me for the rest of the year and in the future."

Since that day, Clark has been the official voice of the Eagles.

Clark's origin story is similar to that of an athlete. He fell in love with announcing at an early age, listening to Joe Castiglione and Dave O'Brien announce Boston Red Sox games. It's then when he discovered his talent and began sharing it with the world.

"Growing up I was diagnosed with Asperger's and one of the things I would do religiously was verbatim do the games I heard on the radio," said Clark, who has a knack for recalling random facts and information from yesteryear, "My mom first noticed because my kindergarten teacher called and said I had to talk to your son today because he was doing a game verbatim today in class and the only reason I noticed this is because I stayed up to watch the same game last night on NESN."

Clark's play-by-play days date back to elementary school when he would record himself calling his classmates playing soccer during recess at Charles Wight Elementary, "The teacher would read a story after recess and I would be sitting outside of class listening to the recording going over the games, skipping ahead to the highlights."

All the practice has paid off for Clark, who has developed his passion and is now voicing some of the biggest games in the state. His idol is legendary ice hockey play-by-play announcer Mike "Doc"

Emrick, who Clark would listen to during the Staley Cup finals.

He channeled his inner-Emrick when the WHS ice hockey team avenged a tournament loss to Branford, erasing a two-goal deficit to win an overtime thriller in February 2020.

"We really packed the Newington arena. I remember getting chirped at by one of the Branford players as one of their big stars came over to the penalty box," recalled Clark, who called this his favorite moment thus far in the booth, "We went into overtime, and I remember just yelling at that point. There was no calm commentary at that point. Aaron Cholewa got the puck on the opposite side of the rink, brings in up through the neutral zone, gets passed everybody and he forehand-backhands it on the goalie and the goalie dove for it and fell out of the crease and Cholewa shovel shots it, as Emrick would say, to top shelf of the net. It was deafening in the Newington Arena."

Clark was also on the call during ice hockey's epic five-overtime game against Newington in last season's conference tourney.

Clark worked a double header that day---also calling the girls ice hockey game---and was exhausted by the time the marathon game ended in the early hours on the next day.

Wethersfield came out on the losing end but Clark remembered a defining moment as he went to go say goodbye to the Eagles in the locker room, "As the Newington kids were walking by one of them saw me and came over, took his glove off, shook my hand, and said 'you've got a fantastic voice, we loved hearing you on the bench, and you're going somewhere.' That meant so much even though I was incredibly sad that point."

Over the years, Clark has received the occasional criticism from opposing parents or coaches, but the feedback has been overwhelmingly positive.

His smooth delivery and ability to make things up on the fly are universally liked by Wethersfield's athletes, coaches, and fans. He's voiced nearly every sport, sometimes having to learn the rules of the sport as he calls the games, and his commentary has created opportunities outside of the school.

This summer he served as a production intern and got some play-by-play practice with the Norwich Sea Unicorns. He's also announced Connecticut Twilight baseball games, Wethersfield Dodger games, Tri-State League baseball, and other various sporting events over the years.

This winter he will expand to college sports, calling games for the Blue Devils ice hockey at Central Connecticut State University.

When he's not in the booth, he's updating the WHS sports happenings for the Blue Eagles News, which airs on YouTube.

He credits his parents for allowing him to follow his dream, "I've been lucky to have parents that are supportive. They'll take me to Dodd Stadium a couple of nights a week or take me to Municipal Stadium in Waterbury for a few nights, anywhere I need to go."

Clark's father is a second-generation firefighter. His older brother, Matt Clark, is currently in fire school in Fairfax County, Virginia and he has a twin sister, Erin Clark, is also entering her senior year at WHS.

Despite having deep roots in Wethersfield, Clark is looking into a variety of colleges across the country with communication and journalism degrees, as he hopes to turn his passion into a career.

But before that, he's got one more season left on the mics at WHS

"I can't explain how awesome it's going to be for that first football game," Clark said of the Eagles home opener against Berlin on Sept 17, "It will be so good to be up in the press box and welcoming everybody back in the stadium, hearing the roar of the crowd."

Rocky Road Leads Wenzel to CCSU

by Josh Howard

Logan Wenzel, a 2021 graduate of Middletown High School, will continue his academic and athletic journey at Central Connecticut State University.

Wenzel will play baseball at CCSU after having the last two years of his high school career cut short due to the COVID-19 pandemic and injuries.

As a high school sophomore, he earned All-Conference and was primed to take the next step as a junior before the COVID-cancellation.

"It allowed me to focus in even harder and push myself," Wenzel said of the cancellation, "I got to work with pitching coaches and top tier Division I talent as soon as the spring came around."

He was named a captain prior to his senior season this spring and was all set to make a big splash but injuries prevented him from reaching his full potential.

"I missed out on all the first practices and the first game and that was the start of an unfortunate tale. I came back and was playing catch-up from the jump. I ended up creating a tear in my labrum of my throwing arm. I was devastated and I was out for the season from throwing," added Wenzel, who gutted out his senior season, "I would have never thought the last time I threw a high school pitch would be my all-conference season as an underdeveloped sophomore. I found myself in and out of the lineup as a DH for the rest of the year with nagging injuries including hamstring and injury management of my shoulder."

Despite the setbacks, Wenzel shared some good times with unforgettable teammates, "A lot of them have gone on to play college ball and succeed. It's amazing and I love those guys I've played with, most of them since I was less than 10 years old, from the little league days to the Generals AAU team to MHS baseball."

He now has a renewed sense of energy and is ready for the next challenge, "I'm getting super healthy and eyeing an incredible comeback story from one of the scariest surgeries a pitcher can get."

Wenzel credited his Middletown coaches and teammates, along with his AAU teammates and coaches for helping him be the player he is today, "A huge shout out to my Generals team and coaches Paul Radziewicz, Rick Murray, Pat Lenahan, Pat Wantanabe, and Eddie Valariano, and one of my biggest influences Bill Tobin, along with a super important piece to my puzzle, coach Trevor Brown. Couldn't have done it without him, and a thank you to the MHS staff and family for what they did for me as well."

Besides baseball, Wenzel also played basketball as a freshman, learning from some incredible MHS athletes, "Being around one of the best athletes I know DeAaron Lawrence and others like Brennan Maxfield, they taught me a lot about wanting to be the best in everything I do, and that hard work truly does pay off."

He was also part of National Honor Society and added that he took pride in being a presence in the classroom, crediting his brother Tyler Wenzel and his parents for his work ethic.

He also participated in band for the first two years of high school, playing the clarinet and was 2nd chair his sophomore year.

Now fully health following shoulder surgery, he'll join a Blue Devils team at CCSU that is coming off a 28-15 season, which included a Northeast Conference championship and an appearance in the NCAA tournament.

"I chose CCSU because they are an incredible program with a school really close to home. I've always wanted to land here, and I made my dream become a reality of being a Division I pitcher but ultimately that's just the tip of the iceberg of where I hope to be one day," stated Wenzel, "I'm excited to show my stuff on a bigger level. Ready to show what Connecticut baseball and the baseball world in general what could have been achieved with a healthy senior season. I think I'm really going to surprise people and turn heads, that's what I'm preparing myself to do every single day. I can't wait to bond with these guys and become a true team."

Logan Wenzel, a 2021 graduate of Middletown High School, will pitch for CCSU.
